NATIVE TRUTH & HEALING

California Genocide Conference 2019

The Genocide, Oppression, Resilience, and Sovereignty of the First Peoples of California

Four days of presentations, music, documentary films, and political action sessions offer attendees a chance to enhance knowledge of the California genocide and Indigenous peoples' history. Engage with others who want to learn more about these topics and come away with new understanding. Come together with the community to share ideas for resolutions that will be sent to state officials at the end of the conference.

Indigenous Film Festival & Music | Thursday, Nov. 21, 2019
Conference | Friday-Sunday, Nov. 22-24, 2019

San Diego State University | Free and open to the public

Honoring of Legendary
SDSU Photographer

Mr. Joe Renteria
(Cherokee)

purpose To contribute to the truth-telling against false narrative about Indigenous nations and peoples, and to further the processes of healing ongoing historical, cultural, and intergenerational trauma; we will raise awareness about the genocide and the continued oppression of California's Indigenous peoples, while celebrating resilience and survivance.

vision We envision a world wherein all peoples are respected fully and the wrongs of colonial oppression are acknowledged and rectified.
